I am a proud Noongar woman with cultural connections to Ballardong and Whadjuk. I work as a public servant and have been living in Wellard for over 7 years. I am passionate about diversity, inclusion and belonging for everyone in our community. I have a keen interest in sustainable tourism and business development for economic growth. I support the unique biodiversity of our City, through conversation and environmental stewardship to our playgrounds, parks and reserves. I am an advocate for Mental Health and support ensuring stable and robust essential services for our City. I believe in the importance of the safety and security of our City and will support initiatives that align with those goals.

I am an active member in advocating and supporting the LGBTIQ+ Community, currently being the Vice-chair for an LGBTIQ+ Community Services not for profit in WA.

With your vote, I will bring a fresh and innovative perspective and voice to the Council.
