My name is Inger Ward and I am reaching out with a heartfelt commitment to create a city where everyone feels valued, heard and empowered.

I have been working with community groups, volunteers, City of Kwinana, local groups, and organisations for more than 25 years.

I believe Kwinana Council could benefit from having more of a community voice represented at the table.

Our community's priorities are clear: open governance, preserving our natural environment, enhancing safety and security, and keeping household costs in check. These are discussions that need a community voice, and that's where I can communicate community issues from my daily in-person interactions. With your support, we can create a Kwinana that thrives through unity and inclusivity.

Let's build a brighter future together. Join me, Inger Ward, in making Kwinana a place where every voice matters and every member of our community can flourish. Together, we can create a city that we're all proud to call home.
