Dr. Nasim Salakjani

I am a married mother of three children, and I come to this opportunity as a committed professional holding a Ph.D. in engineering. With my background, I offer a distinct viewpoint and a rich reservoir of knowledge to tackle the challenges and opportunities that our city faces.

Diversity and inclusivity hold special significance for me, and my foremost objective is to cultivate increased community engagement. I firmly believe that an informed and engaged citizenry serves as the foundation for effective governance.

I will work tirelessly to create opportunities for residents and local businesses to voice their concerns and ideas, ensuring their perspectives are heard and considered in decision-making processes.
