ANNUAL ELECTORS' MEETING – NOTICE OF MOTION FORM

Proposed motions are not required to be lodged in advance of the Annual Electors' Meeting. Electors are, however, encouraged to prepare their motion in writing prior to attending. Notice of forms can be submitted in advance to admin@kwinana.wa.gov.au.

At the meeting, a motion must be moved and seconded before debate can occur. A written copy of the motion must be provided to the City before the vote is taken, in accordance with City procedures.

Important information relating to proposing a notice of motion can be found in the City's Participating in the Annual Electors' Meeting Guide.

Conditions for Motions:

- Those submitting motions must be an elector of the district.
- Motions by electors must relate only to the responsibilities and functions of local government.
